Dear friends,

This past week we observed our Ash Wednesday worship service. The Madi Gras will be over in New Orleans; fat Tuesday, a day of overeating and for some over drinking will have passed. Now it is time to prepare our hearts and souls for the celebration of Easter, the resurrection of our Lord. I love this season, intended as it is to be a time of self-reflection and repentance. I also love it because it is a prelude to celebrating the greatest miraculous event in history. That even being, of course, Jesus defeating the powers of sin, death and Satan.

The resurrection has been called the hinge of the Christian faith. Everything we believe as Christians is dependent on the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. It is the Resurrection which tells us that Jesus is the Christ, the Lord of Lords and the King of Kings.

Easter is what gives our lives meaning and fills our lives with hope for our futures. Because of Easter we know that just as death could not keep Jesus in its grasp, neither will death hold us or our loved ones. Christ has broken the chains of death and shattered the grave forever. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

I hope in the coming days as we continue our Lenten journeys that you will prepare your hearts for the glad day of Easter morning. By reflecting on what our Lord has done on our behalf, the enormity of the gift each of us have received through Christ Jesus will become more real. And then after we gather to observe the days of Maundy Thursday and Good Friday, let us gather with our families for worship and rejoice and be glad. Let us give thanks for our Creator's love for each of us.

In John's Gospel we read "He or she that believes in me, out of that person shall flow rivers of living water." John 7 :38.

Through the coming days I pray you and I will let the hope of Easter inform our lives and the decisions we make. Let the hope of Easter sustain us through good times and bad and keep us firm in our love for our great and gracious God.

Love in Christ,
 Pastor Gordy
