Beloved Family and Friends in Christ,

As we turn the page to March, we find ourselves standing at a beautiful crossroads of seasons, both in the world around us and within our hearts. The chill of winter begins to soften, the days stretch a little longer, and tiny signs of life push their way through the soil. Spring whispers to us of renewal, hope, and the promise that what once seemed dormant is never truly gone. God is always at work, even beneath the surface.

This month also marks the center of the Lenten season, a sacred journey that invites us to slow down, reflect, and draw nearer to the heart of Christ. Lent is not only a time of sacrifice, but a time of preparation. An opportunity to clear space in our busy lives so we may listen more closely for God's voice. It is a season that gently reminds us that transformation often begins quietly, in prayer, humility, and intention. Just as the earth prepares for blooming, our spirits, too, are being readied for resurrection joy.

March carries with it the theme of new beginnings. We see it in budding trees, in the return of birdsong, and in the warmth of sunlight lingering just a bit longer each day. These small miracles echo a larger truth: no matter where we have been or what burdens we carry, God continually offers us fresh starts. Each sunrise is an invitation to step forward in faith, to forgive, to grow, and to hope again.

We are also reminded this month of the incredible blessing of our church family. Though we may be a small congregation, our strength lies in our unity, our compassion, and our shared devotion. There is something profoundly beautiful about a close-knit community, about familiar faces, heartfelt prayers spoken by name, and the way we show up for one another in times of joy and sorrow alike. Our size does not limit our impact; rather, it deepens our connection. Together, we are living proof that faith flourishes wherever hearts are open and love is present.

May this March be a season of gentle renewal for each of us. May we walk through Lent with sincerity and grace, welcome the stirrings of spring with gratitude, and continue to nurture the bonds that make our congregation a true family. Let us move forward with hopeful hearts, trusting that God is always making all things new; within our church, within our community, and within each and every one of us.

GIGATT,
Toviaio, Lay Minister
