Worship Schedule

Faith Sunday School is in need of volunteers! Even if you are not able to commit to helping every Sunday, would you be interested in coming in and teaching a large group lesson? Doing an activity during the small group sessions? Helping with the Christmas Program? Would you be willing to be a substitute? We are so grateful to those that have given of their time throughout the years to help foster the spiritual growth of our children.

Our churches are so fortunate to have seen an increase in our Sunday School attendance over the past years. With this growth comes a need for more volunteers to help each Sunday.

Please contact Tertia if you are interested in volunteering.

There will be a Sunday School Teacher Meeting on September 2, 7:00 p.m.

Welcome Back
Sunday School Children & Teachers!

Dear friends,

School days, school days, good old golden rule days-“reading and writing and rithmetic, taught to the tune of hic’ory stick.” And so begins another school year! Many of us older folks probably remember this little song or have sung it ourselves. The words for this tune were actually written way back in 1907 by Will Cobb and Gus Edwards.

The theme of the song is meant to portray an older couple looking back sentimentally at their childhood school days together. Picture a one room school house with one young teacher at the front of a group of kids of all ages! Learning seemed simpler those many years ago. Kids needed to learn the basics on school to succeed in life. Today the “basics” include computer skills, math most parents can’t understand, an endless of array of sports and music activities and the list goes on. With the hectic schedules most of us keep, it’s easy to “put aside” another school-that of church and Sunday school. Again, most of us older folks remember being taught the 10 commandments in Sunday school, including number 4 which directs, “Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.” Just as we need to continue learning in the secular world all our lives, we need to continue to nourish our faith on a regular basis. Bringing our children and ourselves to Sunday School and church on Sundays gives us all the opportunity to learn the teachings of our church, enriches our faith, nourishes our souls and prepares us for the week ahead. I am excited about the coming church year with the numerous chances for our families to continue to learn and grow in our Christian faith!! Have a wonderful September!!

Grandparents

Grandparent's Day - September 13, 2015

Grandparents bestow upon their grandchildren

The strength and wisdom that time
And experience have given them.

Grandchildren bless their Grandparents
With a youthful vitality and innocence
That help them stay young at heart forever.

Together they create a chain of love
Linking the past with the future.
The chain may lengthen,
But it will never part....
